DESERT EMT TO JOIN CCP

DESERTERS UNLIKE CLASE SURVELLLANCE -- Aung-shang Jin-pao, 15 Sep 49

Sha-yang, 14 September (CMA) -- Chieng Chieng and Chien Min-jen have described the RMT to join up with the CCP in Pei-ping. This fact was revealed to a special CMA correspondent by Muang, the former chief of the Tax Bureau, Human provincial government. On 12 September 1949, Hang escapel from Ch'ang-sha to come to Shao-Yang.

Elaborating further, he said that Ch'ang and Ch'en were tricked into attending the Political Consultative Conference in Pei-ping so that their troops in Chiang-aha could be captured by the CCF.

Huang said that the prevailing rumor is incorrect about the former becoming the chairwan of the temporary Hunan government and the latter, the deputy commissioner of the Ch'arg-sha Military Control Committee.

As to the fate of other KMT followers who have switched to the CCP, Huang stated that most of the former peace advocates, such as Liu Kung-wu, Tuan Fen-hui, Chiang X'un, Yang Jen-yuan, Chou Chun-nan, Yang Sheng-chia, and Ch'en Heing, are now unemployed and are under close surveillance by the CCF.

NO FREEDOM FOR DESERTERS -- Kung-shang Jih-pao, 15 Sep 49

Kwarg-chou, 13 September (CNA) -- According to a certain public official in Hunan, Ch'eng Ch'ien and Ch'en Ming-jen have lost their freedom under the CCP rule. To verify this statement he pointed to one recent incident.

At one of the CCF military conferences in which Ch'en was present, the officer-in-charge ordered everyone to take notes on various epeeches. Instead of doing this, Ch'en committed the gist of the talks to memory. After the speeches, the officer-in charge asked Ch'en to repeat the lectures word for word. Ch'en naturally was unable to comply to this unresamable request. The officer became infuriated and shouted, "You disobeying idiot! Don't act like a big shot! You may have been a commander of a garrison, but the CCP does not recognize you as such. You are the same as the rest of us."
